A BILL NEEDED IN A BETTERER WAY

War "which may be called a "wheeler" has been played in the North under the aegis of the new President of the United States. It is not our purpose to comment on the conduct of Mr. Lincoln or the manner in which he has handled the nation's affairs. It is sufficient to state that the President and his cabinet have conducted the war in a manner which has been most unfortunate for the best interests of the Union. The country is in a state of turmoil and confusion, and the people are weary of the results of the war. The President and his cabinet have been accused of using means which are not in conformity with the Constitution and the laws of the land. The President has been accused of using military force to suppress the rebellion, and the people are weary of the results of the war.
